Who do you think is the greatest leader in the world today?

What makes someone a leader?

The greater you are,
the more you should serve others.

WASHING THE DISCIPLES' FEET

John 13:1-15, 17 (NIV)

¹ It was just before the Passover Festival. Jesus knew that the hour had come for him to leave this world and go to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end.

John 13:1-15, 17 (NIV)

²The evening meal was in progress, and the devil had already prompted Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot, to betray Jesus. ³Jesus knew that the Father had put all things under his power, and that he had come from God and was returning to God;

John 13:1-15, 17 (NIV)

⁴ so he got up from the meal, took off his outer clothing, and wrapped a towel around his waist. ⁵ After that, he poured water into a basin and began to wash his disciples' feet, drying them with the towel that was wrapped around him.

John 13:1-15, 17 (NIV)

⁶ He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, “Lord, are you going to wash my feet?” ⁷ Jesus replied, “You do not realize now what I am doing, but later you will understand.”

John 13:1-15, 17 (NIV)

⁸ “No,” said Peter, “you shall never wash my feet.” Jesus answered, “Unless I wash you, you have no part with me.” ⁹ “Then, Lord,” Simon Peter replied, “not just my feet but my hands and my head as well!”

John 13:1-15, 17 (NIV)

¹⁰ Jesus answered, “Those who have had a bath need only to wash their feet; their whole body is clean. And you are clean, though not every one of you.” ¹¹ For he knew who was going to betray him, and that was why he said not every one was clean.

John 13:1-15, 17 (NIV)

¹² When he had finished washing their feet, he put on his clothes and returned to his place. “Do you understand what I have done for you?” he asked them. ¹³ “You call me ‘Teacher’ and ‘Lord,’ and rightly so, for that is what I am.

John 13:1-15, 17 (NIV)

¹⁴ Now that I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another's feet. ¹⁵ I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you. ¹⁷ Now that you know these things, you will be blessed if you do them.

Leadership is for all of us.

What should true leadership
look like for us?

TRUE LEADERSHIP
SERVES HUMBLLY

John 13:4-5 (NIV)

Luke 22:24 (NLT)

²⁴ Then they began to argue among themselves about who would be the greatest among them.

John 13:6-8 (NIV)

⁶ He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, “Lord, are you going to wash my feet?” ⁷ Jesus replied, “You do not realize now what I am doing, but later you will understand.” ⁸ “No,” said Peter, “you shall never wash my feet.” Jesus answered, “Unless I wash you, you have no part with me.”

John 13:12-14 (NIV)

¹² ...“Do you understand what I have done for you?” he asked them. ¹³ “You call me ‘Teacher’ and ‘Lord,’ and rightly so, for that is what I am. ¹⁴ Now that I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another’s feet.

Humility is not thinking less of yourself,
but thinking of yourself less.

True greatness and leadership are found not in being served,
but in serving others.

If we cannot serve humbly,
we are not ready to lead well.

TRUE LEADERSHIP
LOVES SACRIFICIALLY

John 13:1 (NIV)

¹ It was just before the Passover Festival. Jesus knew that the hour had come for him to leave this world and go to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end.

“He loved them to the end” means fully, completely, all the way through.

The true demonstration of sacrificial love is when it involves loving people who don't deserve it.

He said, "I wouldn't do that
for a million dollars."

He said, “I wouldn’t do that
for a million dollars.”

Mother Teresa reportedly replied,
“Neither would I. I do it for Christ.”

Not all of us can do great things. But we can do small things with great love.

MOTHER TERESA

Love is not just a feeling.
Love is a choice.

I have found the paradox,
that if you love until it hurts, there can be no more hurt; only more love.

TRUE LEADERSHIP
LEADS BY EXAMPLE

John 13:15 (NIV)

¹⁵ I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you.

Leading by example isn't about putting on a show or being hypocritical.
It is about a deep conviction that is seen in the way we live.

Your example is not the main thing in influencing others; it is the only thing.

ALBERT SCHWEITZER

John 13:17 (NIV)

¹⁷ Now that you know these things, you will be blessed if you do them.

1 Timothy 4:12 (NLT)

¹² Don't let anyone think less of you because you are young. Be an example to all believers in what you say, in the way you live, in your love, your faith, and your purity.

If someone followed your example, would they become closer to Jesus or further away?

John 13:8 (NIV)

⁸ ...Jesus answered, “Unless I wash you, you have no part with me.”

Jesus was using feet-washing as a representation of what He is about to accomplish through
His death on the cross.

Romans 5:8 (NLT)

⁸ But God showed his great love for us by sending Christ to die for us while we were still sinners.

1 John 4:19 (NIV)

¹⁹ We love because he first loved us.
