Honour in the House

A Godly community is one with differences and conflicts, yet always choosing unity and reconciliation. We also remember the importance of honouring others during disagreements.

What do you know about honouring the people that God has placed over your life? God has placed your parents, teachers, church leaders over your life to honour them. By honouring them, it means that you value the importance of the other person and you treat the person with respect.

When you learn to honour the people that God has placed in your life, you learn to respect and accept their guidance. What is respecting and accepting their guidance? It means that you learn to share with them about your life and give them the opportunity to teach you to walk right with God. Sometimes, you may find it a little hard to share because you don't like to tell others about your life. However, let us remember that there will be a difference when you learn to humble yourself and choose to accept their guidance whom God has placed over you.

Let us set a reminder in our heart today as when we will learn to honour the authorities in our lives, and find ourselves being humble as we learn and accept their guidance.

Ephesians 6:1-9
(NIRV)

Children, obey your parents as believers in the Lord. Obey them because it's the right thing to do. Scripture says, "Honour your father and mother." That is the first commandment that has a promise. "Then things will go well with you. You will live a long time on the earth." Fathers, don't make your children angry. Instead, instruct them and teach them the ways of the Lord as you raise them. Slaves, obey your masters here on earth. Respect them and honour them with a heart that is true. Obey them just as you would obey Christ. Don't obey them only to please them when they are watching. Do it because you are slaves of Christ. Be sure your heart does what God wants. Serve your masters with all your heart. Work as serving the Lord and not as serving people. You know that the Lord will give each person a reward. He will give to them in keeping with the good they do. It doesn't matter whether they are a slave or not. Masters, treat your slaves in the same way. When you warn them, don't be too hard on them. You know that the God who is their Master and yours is in heaven. And he treats everyone the same.
